

Name: _____

APA Format (2.5 points) _____

Title page (running head, page header, page number, title, byline, affiliation)

Abstract (header, justified paragraph)

References (starting on separate page, header, indentation, punctuation, italics)

Headings (appropriate levels, capitalized & justified/centered appropriately)

Parenthetical references (appropriately punctuated)

Maximum 20 pages of text

Double-spaced, 12-point font

1-inch top & bottom margins, 1.25 left/right margins

Sections

Abstract

Introduction (does not need to be headed)

Method

Results

Discussion

References (if appropriate)

Content (5 points) _____

Problem area to be addressed clearly stated and defined, methodology employed is clearly explicated, evidence incorporated to attest to efficacy of the intervention, coherent discussion of the processes employed

Critical analysis (5 points) _____

Critique of the process and the results, what does the outcome mean with respect to the problem addressed, what is the current state of the problem, what else needs to be done for further change or maintenance to be achieved, what was learned from the process of completing this project, what should be done differently in the future, what was learned about conducting clinical research

Organization (5 points) _____

Clear statement of problem to be addressed in introduction, outline of information to be presented, clearly organized subsections of main part of paper, ideas flow logically from one point to the next, paper ends by summing up results and critiquing the process and implementation of the project

Writing style, grammar, spelling (2.5 points) _____

Written in scientific/journal style (first person is acceptable, but no slang, no contractions), "this?", proper grammar/sentence structure/use of punctuation, correct spelling